During the APPEAL's beauty contest there has been a big rush for extra copies, which caused us to run short of paper. While negotiating with a wall paper dealer for a few rolls of his stock, the News came to our rescue with a bundle of paper, which accounts for yesterday's misfit appearance. It will tide us over until our arrives, and the sub-editor of the APPEAL heartily thanks Miss Martin for the favor.

Strangers in Town.

A Burglar Alarm.

Jake Longabaugh of this city has taken the agency for the Burglar Alarm Bell which is one of the best anti-burglar devices on the market. It is secured to the casing of a door and set by means of a simple lever each night before retiring. The instant the door is opened ever so little it goes off with a racket intended to give a burglar the snakes. In the day time the lever can be moved away from the door without turning the bell on and is altogether a very neat and necessary feature. Price $1.75. Jake Longabaugh Agent for Nevada. j4tf

The Beauty Contest.

From the way extra subscriptions are being recorded in this office, it looks as though some people propose to land their favorite at the top of the list, or know the reason why.

Miss Lottie Gladding was the first to turn the 100 mark, and is now leading the van.

It is whispered around town that a dark horse will capture the gold watch and chain, and that when the result is announced on July 4th, not a few will be surprised.

BEAUTY CONTEST.

NAME:

He Shot his Wife.

Leavenworth, Kan., June 20.—Ambros S. Arnold, head bookkeeper for Benton Brothers, grain commission merchants, yesterday shot and mortally wounded his wife and then blew his brains out. Arnold accused her of infidelity. Mrs. Arnold indignantly asserted her innocence, but her husband, drawing a revolver, threatened to shoot her. She coolly folded her arms and dared him to carry out his threat. Levelling the weapon, Arnold fired two shots into his wife's body and then blew out his brains with the same weapon. Two girls, aged 5 years, twins, will be left alone in the world.

The Odd Fellows' Banquet.

Yesterday the city was turned over to the Odd Fellows, at least 200 of whom arrived to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Nevada. They attended the entertainment in a body and afterwards indulged in a big banquet at their hall, where good things to eat and drink were dispensed to their invited guests. There were toasts, speeches, singing, etc. Care was shelled in the general melody of happiness and good cheer, which lasted until a late hour.

Any time the Odd Fellows want to return to Carson they will be handed the keys to the city gates.

Following was the programme:

Address of Welcome—J. D. Torreyson.
Overture—Mandolin Club.
The Grand Lodge of Nevada—Grand Master Read.
Vocal solo—Will Mather.
The Sovereign Grand Lodge—Grand Representative Mack.
Recitation—C. H. Colburn.
Music—Mandolin Club.
Our Subordinate Lodge—F. M. Huffaker.

Wax in the Ear.

The patient who is troubled with excess of wax in the ear, accompanied with pain, should yawn often and deeply. The pain will soon disappear. In cases of nasal catarrh, inflammation of the palate, sore throat and earache, Dr. Naegeli orders the patient as often as possible during each day to yawn from six to seven times successively, and afterward to swallow. The result will be surprising, but it can easily be understood upon the theory that yawning is nature's message for certain organs.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

The Flower Queen.

The Opera House was packed last night the occasion being the presentation of the Cantata, the Flower Queen, under the direction of Mrs. Laura Combes.

About sixty of Carson's sweetest little girls took part in the performance, which was the best of the kind ever given in Carson. It is impossible to speak of each one personally, but the singing of Miss Vernie Roberts and Miss Emma David surprised the audience and they received hearty applause. The scenery, and calcium lights made very pretty effects, and the choruses, marches and tableaux, were all splendid and loudly applauded. The little tots went through their parts like old hands, and the whole thing went off in good shape.

Besides the Cantata the following program was carried out: Violin and piano duett by Miss Loritta Hickey and Miss Fannie Elstner; exceedingly well rendered. Solo, Flight of the Birds, Miss Gertrude Bowman; very sweetly sung. Solo, Medley, Master Woodie Van Dyke. While it was hard to hear what he was saying, his actions told it plainer than words.

Recitation, Pledge with Wine, Miss Ella Foley; in her usual good style.

Solo, The Star and the Brook, Neva Wilson; with a clear, full voice.

Recitation, When Mr. Jones Joined the Odd Fellows, Miss Lena Mara; with spirit and distinctness. Mrs. Combes is to be congratulated on the success of the entertainment.

COAST NEWS.

Miss Carrie H. er, aged eighteen years, jumped in the Willamette at Portland and was drowned.

Dennis Hagan of the United States Marine Corps was drowned at Vallejo Monday. He fell overboard from the Rosalie.

Frederick John Jorgensen, aged fourteen years, was killed at Sausalito Monday while attempting to board a moving train.

The steamer Grace, plying between Seattle and Port Orchard and Chico, was burned to the water's edge at the last-named place Sunday morning, no one being on board at the time. She was worth about $7,000 and was insured for $6,000.

Arthur Yerke and Charles Trimmer, two young Englishmen who left their ships at Benicia and went into the salmon-fishing business near the mouth of the Sacramento river, have been missing since Monday last, and it is believed they have been killed by a Greek fisherman, with whom they are known to have had trouble.

The Lamarietta vineyard at Fresno last season brought two carloads of boys from San Francisco and set them to picking grapes. The boys' ages ranged from fourteen to eighteen years. Some of them ran away and landed in jail, but the general result was satisfactory. They picked more grapes than an equal number of Chinese, and for less money. It is probable that the experiment of last season will lead to a more extensive one this summer.

Lizzie Borden Acquitted.

A special dispatch to the APPEAL, which was bulletined yesterday afternoon says:

"Lizzie Bowden was acquitted of the charge of murder, the jury being out one hour and twenty minutes. After the verdict she made a speech thanking the jury."

The verdict meets the approval of everyone.

A Horrible Crime.

Durango, Mex., June 20.—Mail advices from Mazatlan say that Joseph E. Perez, a laborer near there, while crazy from drink murdered his little child in a horrible manner. The man was arrested and shot on the spot where he committed the crime.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle. Benton's Liniment for sale at all drug stores.
